EXPRESSION OF WELCOME TO THE NEW MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND OF THANKS TO THE OUTGOING MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

The PRESIDENT: As this is the first meeting of the Security Council to be held this year, I should like to welcome the new members of the Council: Brazil, Djibouti, New Zealand, Pakistan and Spain. We all look forward with confidence to their participation in the work of the Council, which will be of invaluable assistance in the discharge of the Council's enormous responsibilities as it tackles so many challenges.

I should like also to express the Council's gratitude to the outgoing members for their important contributions to the Council's work. The representatives of Austria, Belgium, Ecuador, India and Zimbabwe all, in an excellent manner, contributed their talents to the conduct of the business of the Council.

EXPRESSION OF THANKS TO THE RETIRING PRESIDENT

The PRESIDENT: I should like also to pay a tribute to my predecessor, Ambassador Gharekhan of India, for the service he rendered as President of the Council during the month of December 1992. I express my deep appreciation to Ambassador Gharekhan for the great diplomatic skill and effectiveness he demonstrated as he guided our work in December.

ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA

The agenda was adopted.

ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

LETTER DATED 1 JANUARY 1993 FROM THE PRIME MINISTER OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL (S/25046)

The PRESIDENT: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the item on its agenda.

In a letter dated 1 January 1993 addressed to the Secretary-General, the Prime Minister of the Slovak Republic submitted the application of his country for membership in the United Nations. That letter has been circulated in document S/25046.

Under the provisions of rule 59 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, unless the Council decides otherwise, an application for membership shall be referred by the President of the Council to the Committee on the Admission of New Members. Accordingly, unless I hear a proposal to the contrary, I shall refer the application of the Slovak Republic to the Committee for examination and report.

As I hear no objection, it is so decided.

I would propose that the Committee on the Admission of New Members meet today, 7 January 1993, at 3.30 p.m., in Conference Room 6, to consider the application of the Slovak Republic for membership in the United Nations and report to the Security Council. The date of the subsequent meeting of the Council to consider and to take a decision on the report of the Committee will be set and communicated to the members later.

The Council has thus concluded its consideration of the matter before it.

The meeting rose at 12.40 p.m.

ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

LETTER DATED 4 JANUARY 1993 FROM THE PRIME MINISTER OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC
ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL (S/25045)

The PRESIDENT: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the item on its agenda.

In a letter dated 4 January 1993 addressed to the Secretary-General, the Prime Minister of the Czech Republic submitted the application of his country for membership in the United Nations. That letter has been circulated in document S/25045.

Under the provisions of rule 59 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, unless the Council decides otherwise, an application for membership shall be referred by the President of the Council to the Committee on the Admission of New Members. ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS CONCERNING THE APPLICATION OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC FOR ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS (S/25066)

The PRESIDENT: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the report of the Committee on the Admission of New Members concerning the application of the Slovak Republic for admission to membership in the United Nations, which appears in document S/25066. In paragraph 3 of the report, the Committee recommends to the Council that it should have recourse to the provision of the last paragraph of rule 60 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure in order to present its recommendation to the resumed forty-seventh session of the General Assembly. If I hear no objection, I shall take it that the Council wishes to waive the time limit set forth in the penultimate paragraph of rule 60.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

In paragraph 4 of the report, the Committee recommends to the Security Council the adoption of a draft resolution on the application of the Slovak Republic for membership in the United Nations. I should like to congratulate the Committee on its unanimous decision to recommend that the Slovak Republic be admitted to membership in the United Nations. In accordance with the understanding reached in prior consultations among the members of the Council, I propose that the Council adopt the draft resolution contained in paragraph 4 of the report of the Committee on the Admission of New Members without a vote.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

(The President)

I therefore declare that the draft resolution contained in paragraph 4 of the report of the Committee on the Admission of New Members (S/25066) has been adopted without a vote as resolution 800 (1993). I shall immediately convey the decision of the Security Council recommending the admission of the Slovak Republic to membership in the United Nations to the Secretary-General for transmittal to the General Assembly in accordance with the provisions of rule 60 of the provisional rules of procedure.

I shall now make a statement, in my capacity as President of the Security Council, on behalf of the members of the Council.

"The Security Council has decided to recommend to the General Assembly that the Slovak Republic be admitted as a member of the United Nations. On behalf of the members of the Security Council, I wish to extend my congratulations to the Slovak Republic on this historic occasion. The Council notes with great satisfaction the Slovak Republic's solemn commitment to uphold the purposes and principles of the United Nations Charter and to fulfil all the obligations contained therein. We look forward to the day in the near future when the Slovak Republic will join us as a member of the United Nations and to working closely with its representatives."

The Council has thus concluded its consideration of the matter before it.

The meeting rose at 12.55 p.m.

ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS CONCERNING THE APPLICATION OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC FOR ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS (S/25067)

The PRESIDENT: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the report of the Committee on the Admission of New Members concerning the application of the Czech Republic for admission to membership in the United Nations, which appears in document S/25067. In paragraph 3 of the report, the Committee recommends to the Council that it should have recourse to the provision of the last paragraph of rule 60 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure in order to present its recommendation to the resumed forty-seventh session of the General Assembly. If I hear no objection, I shall take it that the Council wishes to waive the time limit set forth in the penultimate paragraph of rule 60.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

In paragraph 4 of the report, the Committee recommends to the Security Council the adoption of a draft resolution on the application of the Czech Republic for membership in the United Nations. I should like to congratulate the Committee on its unanimous decision to recommend that the Czech Republic be admitted to membership in the United Nations. In accordance with the understanding reached in prior consultations among the members of the Council, I propose that the Council adopt the draft resolution contained in paragraph 4 of the report of the Committee on the Admission of New Members without a vote.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

(The President)

I therefore declare that the draft resolution contained in paragraph 4 of the report of the Committee on the Admission of New Members (S/25067) has been adopted without a vote as resolution 801 (1993). I shall immediately convey the decision of the Security Council recommending the admission of the Czech Republic to membership in the United Nations to the Secretary-General for transmittal to the General Assembly in accordance with the provisions of rule 60 of the provisional rules of procedure.

I shall now make a statement, in my capacity as President of the Security Council, on behalf of the members of the Council.

"The Security Council has just recommended to the General Assembly that the Czech Republic be admitted to membership in the United Nations. It is with great pleasure that, on behalf of the members of the Council, I congratulate the Czech Republic on this historic occasion. The Council notes with great satisfaction the Czech Republic's solemn commitment to uphold the purposes and principles of the United Nations Charter and to fulfil all the obligations contained therein. We look forward to the day in the near future when the Czech Republic will join us as a member of the United Nations and to working closely with its representatives." The Council has thus concluded its consideration of the matter before it.
